

over the same to the County Commissioners of said County at the end of each month, together with an itemized statement thereof].

325.

[Every] ANY SANE person within the confines of Wicomico or Somerset Counties[, Maryland, not being insane,] who has no visible means of maintenance, from property or personal labor, or is not permanently supported by his [or her] friends or relatives, who lives idle; without employment; and every person who leads a dissolute or disorderly course of life, and cannot give an account of the means by which he [or she] procures a legitimate livelihood, and every nomad, gypsy, or other person practicing that which is commonly called fortune-telling by acts, signs or omens, for value or otherwise, or any common gambler shall be deemed a vagabond[; and]. IN ADDITION every person who habitually wanders about and begs in the limits of Wicomico or Somerset Counties from house to house, or sits or stands or takes a position in any place or begs from passers-by; either by words or gestures, shall be deemed a habitual beggar; and every person who wanders about and lodges in outhouses, market places, barracks, sheds, barns, or in any public building, or in the open air, and has no permanent place of abode, or visible means of maintenance, shall be deemed a vagrant.

326.

[Every] UPON CONVICTION BEFORE A COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION, ANY vagabond, habitual beggar, vagrant or fortune-teller, mentioned in Section 325 [of this subtitle upon conviction before the Circuit Court for Wicomico or Somerset Counties, or before any Justice of the Peace having criminal jurisdiction, shall be deemed] IS guilty of a misdemeanor, and [shall be] IS subject to a fine of not less than [twenty-five dollars (] $25[.00),] nor more than [one hundred dollars (] $100[.00) ], or be confined in the Maryland House of Correction for a period of not less than two months, nor more than six months, or both fine and imprisonment[, within the discretion of the Circuit Court or the Justice of the Peace; provided that]. HOWEVER, any person found to be a vagabond or [an] A habitual beggar who [may] IS not [be] able-bodied, but aged or infirm or seriously crippled, may in the discretion of the Court [or Justice of the Peace,] be committed to the almshouse, or be paroled[;] and [provided] also that any minor committed under this subtitle may be sent to any reformatory institution [to which] WHERE minors [may be] ARE committed under Article 27 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland or paroled in the discretion of the Court. [or Justice of the Peace. Provided, however, that if any person when brought before any such Justice of the